

ASHHNA's Aims

- Promote sexual and reproductive health and HIV nursing with professional specialties.
- Advance the standards and scope of sexual and reproductive health and HIV nursing practice.
- Facilitate the exchange of professional information to ensure effective communication and networking.
- Act as the representatives of the Australasian sexual and reproductive health and HIV nurses in discussions with government and non-Government bodies at the State, Territory and Federal level.
- Support the standard and scope of evidence based professional development of nurses in the specialty.
- Promote collaborative research in sexual and reproductive health and HIV nursing.

How do I join?

You can join or renew your ASHHNA membership at any time. To make it easy you can pay your membership by direct deposit, cheque or money order.

Download a membership form from www.ashhna.org.au today.

Membership fees are $60 per year and are accepted all year round.

For membership enquires please contact the Membership Secretary via the contact page on the website or mail to:

ASHHNA
PO Box 1062,
ASHFIELD NSW 2131

Want to know more?

Find out more about ASHHNA or contact an executive member go to www.ashhna.org.au

Supporting Nurses in Sexual and Reproductive Health and HIV

ASHHNA is the peak Australasian sexual, reproductive health & HIV nurses professional organisation

www.ashhna.org.au

ASHHNA's Benefits

- Annual Development Scholarship.
- Annual Nurses Prize.
- Online Knowledge Network.
- National representation at nursing and health forums.
- ASHM Affiliation.
- ASHHNA website.
- Local area sub-branches and supported education meetings.
- Biannual newsletter.

Annual Scholarship

ASHHNA promotes professional development through the annual ASHHNA scholarship. The scholarship encourages further education, research and attendance at sexual health, reproductive health and HIV conferences.

For further information contact the scholarship coordinator.

Annual Nursing Prize

To encourage nurses undertaking projects and research, ASHHNA awards the Kendra Sundquist Nurses prize at the annual Australasian Sexual Health Conference.

The Knowledge Network

The Knowledge Network is a great way to keep in contact with and share information with colleagues.

Joining ASHHNA get's you access to the email list.

It's a great way to:

- Share articles and documents.
- Join in online discussions about current and relevant nursing issues.
- Share resources and websites of interest.
- Find the latest job opportunities.
- Receive course & conference information.
- Information updated from health departments and the NSW STIPU unit.
- Communicate with other ASHHNA members around the world.

Newsletter

As an ASHHNA member you will receive a bi-annual newsletter. We encourage all our members to contribute to the newsletter.

The newsletter is a great place to get published and to highlight the innovative contribution HIV, sexual and reproductive health nurses make to their specialty field.

Sub-branches

ASHHNA sub-branches exist in several states to provide local and relevant education, networking and help reduce geographical isolation for remote nurses. ASHHNA supports sub branches by contributing to the cost of meetings.

The Sub Branch Coordinator can link you to your local branch or assist you in setting up a new branch.

ASHM Affiliation Australasian Society for HIV Medicine

All ASHHNA members can elect to become an ASHM Affiliate entitling them to complementary access to all ASHM member benefits (excluding voting and board representation), including My ASHM members only section of the website and email information alerts on topics of interest.