ASHM Affiliate program for ASHHNA Members

Following the establishment of a collaboration between the Australasian Society for HIV Medicine (ASHM) and ASHHNA, we are pleased to announce that all current ASHHNA Members can now receive ASHM Membership benefits free of charge, by becoming an Affiliate of ASHM.

ASHM is the peak Australasian organization representing the medical and health sector in HIV, Viral Hepatitis and related areas. Become an Affiliate of ASHM and receive:

Trusted advice from peers and fellow Members through:

- Networking opportunities
- Support from an experienced Secretariat
- Access to secure areas on the ASHM website

Access to the latest training, resources and updates through:

- Discounted registration to the Annual Australasian HIV/AIDS Conference hosted by ASHM (2010 Conference to be held in Sydney, 20-22 October)
- Webcasting of major conferences organised by the ASHM Conference & Events Division
- Member-only publications and up-to-date information: ASHM News (e-newsletter), Journal Club (quarterly hardcopy publication), regular Email Alerts (targeted to your nominated areas of interest)
- Directory of HIV, hepatitis and related services in Australasia
- Free and discounted training courses and seminars contributing to Continuing Professional Development (CPD) points
- Discounted subscription to the journals HIV Medicine and Journal of HIV Therapy
- Free online access to Medline through ASHM's OVID gateway
- Additional online educational activities in the secure area of the ASHM website

Scholarships, awards and consulting opportunities through:

- Programs focusing on the needs of new researchers and priority populations
- Teaching, reviewing or writing

To be eligible for all of these complementary ASHM Membership benefits alongside your ASHHNA Membership benefits please complete the application form at:
